Dear Friend:

First of all please pardon my delay in answering your letter. I know you understand what pressure everyone is operating under today.

I want to thank you for your offer. I have always felt our baseball could work out a plan by which we could all have a farm system of some kind, but you know how most of the members are. If we worked out a plan I doubt that we could do any thing about it if some member did not respect it. You know how unbusinesslike our organization is set up.

I will bring up the farm system discussion at the meeting, and see how the majority feel. If it sound like I would have a chance, I will get in touch with you right away.

I picked up a pretty good set of Coca Cola uniforms last year, practically new, very reasonable. If I can get new ones from my dealer, I will sell you this set cheap if you are interested. I bought them with the intention of using them in camp, but if I can get new ones for the road I will use my old ones in camp. I have had the Coca Cola taken off, and they are clean. Look to hear from me as soon as we have a meeting. I imagine it will be around the first of the year.

Very Truly Yours
